Retail First

With 21 shopping centres in South East Queensland we pride ourselves on being central to our communities, tailoring our approach to suit each local market.

We create environments that are more than just a shopping centre, with over 87 million people visiting every year.

Our retail focus and expertise enables the delivery of long term sustainable outcomes, and our inclusive community approach creates a sense of familiarity and belonging, where all are welcome.

We do business to achieve shared value – achieving positive dividends for all stakeholders including owners and investors, retailers, our team, our communities, and our environment.
